Most Reverend Anthony Sablan Apuron, OFM, Cap., D.D.
Archbishop of Agana
ARCHDIOCESE OF AGANA
San Ramon Hill, Guam 96910

Your Excellency:

The Lord be with you.

WHEREAS you have stated that the REDEMPTORIS MATER HOUSE OF FORMATION, A GUAM NON-PROFIT CORPORATION with the fictitious business name THE REDEMPTORIS MATER ARCHDIOCESAN MISSIONARY SEMINARY is wholly-subject to you as its CORPORATE SOLE<sup>1</sup>; and

WHEREAS the Chancery Office of the Archdiocese of Agana has confirmed that relative to the control of said corporation, “. . . all decisions pertain to the Archbishop”<sup>2</sup>,

We, the undersigned officers of Concerned Catholics of Guam, Inc., which by virtue of a recent petition drive represent more than three thousand of Guam’s Catholic Faithful, request that you quitclaim the property identified in the “Deed Restriction” recorded with the Department of Land Management of the Government of Guam, under instrument number 829322 on November 22, 2011 to ARCHBISHOP OF AGANA, A CORPORATION SOLE, ARCHBISHOP ANTHONY SABLAN APURON, OFM DD., INCUMBENT, forthwith.

We look forward to your confirmation of the quitclaim.

Yours sincerely,
CONCERNED CATHOLICS OF GUAM, INC.
